Missing from Her Home.

Mrs. M. F. Babbett, or No. 244 West Twentyfifth-st., left her home Tuesday afternoon, saying that she wished to go to a neighboring store. Since then she has not been seen by her husband or friends. Her husband says that she was probably deranged, as she had shown signs of mental trouble recently. She is about thirty-two years of age, five feet and six inches in height, with dark hair, blue eyes and a plump figure. She wore a black dress, a rubber clock and a dark hat.

Tubber cloak and a dark hat.

ILL-VENTILATED FERRY-BOAPS.

The attention of the Health Officers was drawn yesterday to the condition of the Roosevelt Ferry boats by an official communication from the Brooklyn Board of Health, referred to in yesterday's Tribuune. At the Health Office it was stated that last winter Santary Superintendent Janes reported that the condition of the boars on this ferry was fraught with danger as well as discomfort to passengers, and suggested certain improvements, which the company promised to make. The matter will be taken up by the Board at its meeting next Tuesday.

TRAVEL DELAYED BY SEA AND LAND. Reports from along the Atlantic coast and from the int rior show that the snow-fall Tuesday was heavy, and that the north-northeast gale was very seyere, causing heavy drifts and blockades to railroad and other travel. The ocean steamships which arrived yesterday report that the snow-storm was very dense, and almost equal to a fog, making it necessary to run at slower speed. The Escambia, from China ports, was delayed off Sandy Hook nearly twenty-four hours, and the Otranto, from Hull, and the Averill, from West Hartelpool, had to anchor inside of Sandy Hook until the storm abated. Long Branch, N. J., Dec. 22.-Now that the storm is over, it is possible to estimate the damage it has done. The fall of snow is 31 menes. In the great drifts two locomotives and a passenger train were buried at Branchport. Men and boys were pressed into service, and with spades worked all night endeavoring to extriate the engines and train. A clearing was made by midnight, and a power-ul locomotive, armed with a huge snow-plow, was made fast to one of the blocked engines, but before it could back out another drift formed and a third locemotive was snow-bound. There were forty passengers on the train, among the number being several ladies. The ladies remained in the coaches during the night. The men sought quarters at the hotel. At 6 o'clock this morning the track was cleared as far as Scabright, and the blockaded people were sent to their destination.

The from greders and braces were twisted in all snapes by the force of the sea. Twenty feet of the north deck of the pier were swent away. Supported by a few from columns, the rest of the deck held, but about eighty feet of it careened over, and must be removed.

The New-Jersey Southern Rairroad made no connections at Branchport until noon, when the snow-buried eightes were extricated. The Government wire along the coast is down, and the other lines are twisted and broken, so that no intelligence of marine disasters, if any occurred, can be obtained. The report of a vessel ashere at Sea Brigat is erroneous.

PRESENTS. Mason & Hamlin ORGANS

$22 TO $900 EACH,

Though the majority of Styles are at from $100 to $200, XAVER SCHARWENKA, of Bedin, writes, "These Mason & Hamlin Organs are the most excellent instruments that I know of. They are expalse of giving the finest tone coloring, and no other instrument so enraptures the player," and similar opinions have been expressed by many other celebrated musicians. Dr. FRANZ LISZT has characterized the player, "The Coloring of the Coloring o them as "matchless," "unrivalled;" THEODORE THOMAS propounces them " the best instruments of the class made either in this country or Europe." ITALO CAMPANINI writes: "They excel all similar instruments of which I have any knowledge. But you have better proof of my opinion of your Organs than even this expression, in the fact that I have just purchased one to take with me to Italy." J. H. MA-PLESON and LUIGI ARBITI. manager and conductor of Her Materiy's Italian Oners Company, and I. We have never Her Majesty's Italian Opera Company, say: " We have never seen an organ of this description which equaled your Liszt A MARVEL OF EXCELLENCE AND ECONOMY IS
